To whom it may concern:

Reference for Alliant Communications, Inc.

Zirkle Fruit Company was pleased with Alliant Communications as our vendor choice for telecommunications product and services.

We have found them to be very thorough from the planning stages through the final training and continued support portions of our implementation. Their knowledge of product and application made the transition to our current phone system much easier than we had planned.

Alliant was always open to suggestions from our IT staff and end users in order to help us develop the most efficient system for our company. They resolved new issues quickly by phone or a responsive on-site visit when needed.

It was a pleasure working with the staff from Alliant. I would recommend them to anyone looking for their type of services. They are truly a quality company with excellent service.
